

North Carolina FAA Safety Team & Greensboro FSDO presents:

Rescheduled Annual Goldsboro WINGS Day Activities and Seminars

Due to the Recent Hurricane damage and flooding, this event has been rescheduled from October 15 to November 5, 2016

The 2016 Goldsboro WINGS is jammed packed with fun filled activities, multiple seminars, spot landing contests, door prizes, food, and awards. More than 16 activities and seminars from which to select! Win a trophy for the most skilled pilot in Spot Landings. Inspect a glider and sit in the cockpit to learn about the thrill of becoming a glider rated pilot. Participate in a "Pre-flight Challenge". Witness a drone demonstration. Plus for the first time, non-pilot friends and wives can take some basic maneuvers flight training in a Basic Training Device (limited offer). A FLY-IN Pancake Breakfast begins at 8:00 am. followed by a free grilled hamburger lunch. Discover the excitement and increased interest in glider flight training and sit in a glider positioned in the hangar for your inspection. Learn about drone flight operations and how to become an FAA Certified Drone Pilot.

Don't miss the fun and FREE educational opportunities provided by aviation professionals that only comes around once a year. This is a great opportunity to increase your aviation knowledge, become a safer pilot, talk with your fellow airmen, and have fun all at the same
